SOMETHING ABOUT THE OLINGHOUSE CANYON MINES

The Dispatch Correspondent Writes Concerning This Prosperous Camp.

The Ora stamp mill is running night and day on a trial run of 100 tons of Cabin ore for W. C. Williams.

The Slip mill is running day and night on 60 tons of Renegade ore for Kearney and Effrinks. Their lease has expired and overtures have not been made by either side for renewal. The boys have ore in sight on their own claim, however.

W. C. Williams continues to take good ore from the Cabin claim and doubtless will during the entire season as there is enough in sight and already extracted to keep him busy.

Ore is still being piled up on the dump on the Cabin No. 2 claim.

J. D. Poole, Charles MacMahon and a miner named Crowley are working on the No. 2. The mine promises to be a great property. At present ore is being taken from a vein averaging three feet, uncovered for forty feet, very conservative value $25 per ton. There is a well defined vein sixty feet wide that shows $7 to $8 a ton. It is now a great mine.

W. H. Jackson and three miners are working on the Jumper and taking out $20 ore the width of the shaft. At times very rich ore is found but we give conservative figures on the average. The mine is improving very fast, every day uncovering depth of ore and adding to its value.

The Lewis boys continue to take ore from the Butte of good values. The more work done the more is demonstrated the fact that the Butte is a good property.

The McClane find on the Gold Center holds its own in richness and extent. It is past believing and requires seeing.

The Renegade mine in its entirety is a very large low grade proposition that some day will sell for big money to a big operator. It will stand a great test.

Between four and five tons of ore are being taken out daily from the Hutchison vein, which at this writing shows about four feet, the ore holding uniform value. A drift is being run to tap this vein at fifty feet. About 140 tons of ore are on the dump.

Engineer Cummings and Prospector Fletcher have a main shaft on the lacer near the mouth of the canyon

75 feet deep, having passed through twelve successive washes and no bed rock in sight. When bed rock is struck they will drift for the channel. They camp at the cottonwoods.

Olinghouse can be figured as a permanent mining camp.

Millions Given Away.

It is certainly gratifying to the public to know of one concern in the land which is not afraid to be generous to the needy and suffering. The proprietors of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, have given away over ten million trial bottles of this great medicine; and have the satisfaction of knowing it has absolutely cured thousands of hopeless cases. Asthma, bronchitis, hoarseness and all diseases of the throat chest and lungs are surely cured by it. Call on S. J. Hodgkinson, Druggist, and get a trial bottle. Regular size, 50 cents and $1. Every bottle guaranteed or price refunded.

With the Honors of War.

The remains of Corporal Hartung, who died in the Philippines, have arrived in this city. The funeral will take place Sunday. It will be under the auspices of the Odd Fellows. It has been suggested that the fraternal society be co-operated with by the various military organizations in this city. The JOURNAL requests that a representation be had of the G. A. R., volunteers in the late war and the University cadets at a meeting to be held in the police court room this evening at 7 o'clock to arrange for the funeral in conjunction with the Odd Fellows.

Notice to the Public.

You are hereby notified to clean any dirt, rubbish, ashes, paper or other matter whatsoever in any street, alley, gutter or highway within the limits of the town of Reno, within one week from date, and any party violating this order is hereby declared to violate Ordinance No. 19, to which you are referred, and if such ordinance is violated you will be subject to fine, as therein specified.

THE MEETING OF THE COMMITTEES.

The time is not distant when the State Central Committees of the Democratic and Silver parties will come together to do preliminary work required to put in motion the motive power of the approaching campaign. What will be the result remains to be ascertained when the committeemen will have gathered themselves together and taken wise or unwise action. There has been an effort made to keep the Democratic and Silver parties from meeting to support a common cause, which the imperialists have been relying upon to aid in defeating Bryan for the Presidency, Newlands for Congress and the cause of the people.

The JOURNAL is informed that Nevada's evening star, O. C. Wallace, has given his attention and time to make obstacles in the way of a union, to serve his purpose to continue slavery in the State, to the will and power of Wallace. It is his business to make division when it is required to secure control of a county, a convention or a State. Whatever he does in political work is absolutely in opposition to the best interests of the people and the good of the commonwealth. When he controls he dictates, and is a tyrant in a small way in politics and things political, that includes a range from a Senator to a janitor.

We have said in a small way, because politics in the State are run in a narrow and small way, which seem to reflect the size of Wallace. The success Wallace has secured by procuring proxies to the Silver convention and other influence, will not be known till the committees have taken action, and then it will not be known to what extent he is represented in committee. It is well known that he has a number of devoted followers and representatives in the Silver party committee, whom he has controlled to the chagrin of the best men in the party. Whether his dominance continues will be discovered in time to meet any required action by the people. The chief difficulty with men who have been under the influence of Charlie, is that they continue to need watching, which is annoying. They are very much like an old drunk, who is always reforming and promising to reform, but continues like the sow to return to his wallowing in the mire and drunk-like is very liable to give everything away and more. He is liable to use anything he knows to the disadvantage of those who have been acting with him.

Then comes into play the cunning and secretiveness there is so noticeable in his devotees, but there is no danger that will ever arise from their mental calibre, or they would not be devoted to Wallace or to his work. The people will also be free from all danger arising from any outbreak by a sense of moral responsibility there is in any of them, whereby Charlie's political canvass might be disturbed by a succession of religious revivals, which might enure to the demoralization of Wallace and his plans when near to the time of an election.

It may be well for the people to consider the relation that Wallace and those who aid him sustain to the State. Wallace is no more a resident of the State in law or in fact, but he is here to run our State for us, which is a just conclusion from what he has done in the past. He has directed the politics of the State for years, and intends to continue to do so, which we all know is true. When we have ascertained the intention of the man, the query arises respecting his ability to do the work. He has directed the State and its government, which will not be disputed by anyone who is informed in politics in Nevada.

Are not the same elements present now that he has used in his work in former years? They are surely as largely present as they ever have been, and are as ready to be used again as they have been used, which being true, his ability is equal at present to run the State as it has been at any time preceding the present. When it is ascertained that his present power for evil is equal to his ability to injure the people and the industries of the State in former times, we have solved the problem in his favor that gives the right, which is no idle boast, when he says "I am the State."

Will the people think over the impudence of the man when he assumes to direct the business of our State and parcel out its offices at pleasure by directing its politics, aided by a gang who are among us and who are by their action enemies to the State and to its people. The man would be powerless to injure and degrade the State and the people were it not for

BOERS REPORTED TO BE THREATENING

Beleaguered City of Bloemfontein---British Commanders Are Extremely Vigilant.

Special to the JOURNAL.

LONDON, April 10.—The Bloemfontein correspondent of the Daily Mail says: The air is thick with reports of large forces of Boers threatening Bloemfontein on the south, but there is no positive official information on the subject. Movements of troops continue with bewildering frequency, but the destination is a mystery. The greatest vigilance is exercised by the British commanders.

Confirmation has been received of the report that the Boers are in great force at Donkerspoort, eighteen miles southeast of here. The British troops are sleeping in the trenches.

Bryan Warmly Received.

Special to the JOURNAL.

SAN DIEGO, April 9.—William Jennings Bryan spoke to 10,000 people here tonight. His reception throughout Southern California has been enthusiastic.

BRIEF WIRED WORDS.

It is reported that the Boers have cut off Roberts' army's base of supplies.

London is amazed at the Boer successes and only faith in General Roberts keeps up the courage of the British public.

The losses by the flood in Texas will aggregate three million dollars.

Hanna will undoubtedly manage the next campaign of his party.

The Philippine insurgents are now indulging in offensive warfare.

A. R. De Fluente, editor of the Journal, Doylestown, Ohio, suffered for a number of years from rheumatism in his right leg, shoulder and side. He says: "My right arm at times was entirely useless. I tried Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and was surprised to receive relief almost immediately. The Pain Balm has been a constant companion of mine ever since and it never fails."

For sale by Wm. Pinniger.

We have saved many doctor bills since we began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in our home. We keep a bottle open all the time and whenever any of my family or myself began to catch cold we begin to use the cough remedy, and as a result we never have to send away for a doctor and incur a large doctor bill, for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy never fails to cure. It is certainly a medicine of great merit and worth.—D. S. MEARLE, General Merchant and Farmer, Mattie Bedford county, Pa. For sale by Wm. Pinniger.

It is very hard to stand idly by and see our dear ones suffer while awaiting the arrival of the doctor. An Albany (N. Y.) dairyman called at the drug store here for a doctor to come and see his child, then very sick with croup. Not finding the doctor in, he left word for him to come at once on his return. He also bought bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which he hoped would give some relief until the doctor should arrive. In a few hours he returned, saying the doctor need not come, as the child was much better. The druggist, Mr. Otto Scholz, says the family has since recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to their neighbors and friends until he has a constant demand for it from that part of the country. For sale by Wm. Pinniger.

USES FOR OUR SAGEBRUSH

Field for It in Making Paint, Tanning Leather and for Medicine.

In an interview with Hon. Thomas Wren the JOURNAL has obtained the following interesting information:

"The sagebrush contains a very large quantity of tannic acid. I have had no analysis made to determine the relative quantity contained in sagebrush or in willow or in oak bark, but from my experiments I believe that the sage contains much the larger proportion. In addition the sage contains a vegetable oil that I am convinced can also be used in tanning the finer qualities of leather. The essential oil of the sage is also valuable for medicinal purposes. It is used by the Indians and by some white people for a variety of ailments, being found especially valuable in cases of mountain fever.

"This oil also forms a valuable base in the manufacture of ink. The indelible variety can be made from it.

"There is no question but that the tannic acid of commerce can be cheaply manufactured from sagebrush, the body of the brush being used for fuel. In this connection I will state that by sagebrush I mean the black sage. The sage generally known by that name is not sage but artemisia or wormwood.

The botanist who accompanied Clarence King in his survey of the 40th parallel in this State describes about thirty varieties of the artemisia occurring near this parallel in Nevada.

"Not galls are somewhat expensive, and manufacturers of ink now use oak bark instead of procuring the tannic acid for the cheaper qualities of ink base.

"I at one time applied for a patent for the manufacture of ink for the extract of sage, but it was rejected on the grounds that numerous patents had been issued for the manufacture of ink in which tannic acid formed the base. The attention of the chemist of the patent office was called to the fact that another ingredient had been used in the manufacture of the ink, for which no patent had ever been issued, whereupon the wise man of the patent office informed me through his attorney that the ingredient that had been successfully used by myself from the extract of sage, did not combine with tannic acid at all. Hence the refusal of letters patent."

OUR COPPER IS ALL RIGHT

Under Modern Methods It Can Be Very Profitably Worked.

The day is near when large deposits of low grade copper ore in this vicinity will become the source of immense revenues. Some people carp and cavil at the miners and their mines. Let them read the following item of unquestionable correctness which recently appeared in the bulletin:

In Nevada within the last twenty-five years ore assaying less than $20 a ton was ignored or thrown upon waste dumps, but ore of that value can now be mined at a cost of less than $1 per ton where modern reduction plants are installed convenient to mines and operated by the companies owning them. In Michigan copper ore assaying $1 per ton, is worked profitably.

Poor Little Foundling.

Various theories have been advanced relative to the way the Silver party came into existence. The latest comes from the Reno Gazette. Allen Bragg says he was in bed in 1892 during the months of July, August, September, October and November, during which time the Silver party was born. We never knew before that Allen Bragg was the mother of the Silver party. On several occasions, however, the Reno Gazette has endeavored to fasten the paternity of the child onto Black Wallace.—Oarson Appeal.

Seriously Injured.

Sunday evening a man by the name of John Davis assaulted a negro named Hankins in Chas. Frisch's saloon, Bytanders say that the assault was unprovoked. The instrument used by Davis was a beer faucet. He cut his antagonist about the head so badly that it required six or seven stitches to close the wound. Davis was arrested by Officer Helms and is languishing in the county jail. His examination will await the condition of the injured man.

Does It Still Live?

Nothing has been seen or heard of the Nevada Magazine for the past six weeks. We hope that it has not yielded up its breath. The Magazine was (or is) a reflection of Nevada literary life and an exponent of sagebrush industries and picturesque. We hope to soon have audible or visible proof that the Magazine still lives and prospers.

SUICIDE OF TWO YOUTHS

Each Ended His Existence With a Pistol Bullet in His Brain.

Daniel E. Holland committed suicide in Virginia City yesterday afternoon at the home of his brother, John Holland. The deed was committed with a .38-calibre revolver. The bullet passed through his right temple to his left cheek, causing instant death.

The deceased was a native of the Comstock and was aged 24 years. He was a miner by profession and was employed until recently in Nye county. Despondency due to drink is ascribed as the cause of his suicide.

Fred Cornelson of Milford, Lassen county, committed suicide yesterday morning by blowing out his brains. He bade his brother good bye, pulled out a pistol and a moment later was dead.

Some months ago his head was injured in an accident and it is believed that his suicidal intent was induced by the resultant illness.

The deceased was a grandson of A. H. Barnes deceased, formerly proprietor of the Golden Eagle hotel.

The government charges fraud.
